Story:

Straight out of her closet in Dallas, this is a dress patterned after one of Kristen's Grandmother Eunice's own designs. We love this pattern because it's a classic shape that's still current years later and is appropriate for most occasions, from DIY venue music shows in Brooklyn to dinner with your boyfriend's parents. Eunice's fabric is made with eco-friendly Tencel so it's incredibly soft (seriously, it's really soft) and lightweight. The dress has short sleeves with a button up collar, single welt breast pocket, elastic cinched waist and silky hip pockets.

Sizing Tips:

For CHEST, lift your arms and measure around your body, crossing over the fullest part of your bust.

For WAIST, measure around your waistline at the level where you're supposed to wear your pants (but probably don't). Then add about 0.5" for a more accurate fit.
